

Exciting!! Year-End News from Shenandoah Area Council

Over 550 New youth recruited ensuring Scouting's growth.

An in-school program called Learning for Life is being offered in Stanley, VA for at risk youth.

Our largest service project, Scouting for Food, collected 50,000 pounds of food for food pantry's in the nine counties we serve. Individual troops and packs provided more than 17,000 service hours.

Over 85 young men will receive the highest rank in Scouting, Eagle Scout!

Prepared for Life

A 28 person council contingent attended Seabase high adventure camp in Key West, FL.

Thirty-six Arrowmen attended NOAC, the 100th Anniversary of the Order of the Arrow.

Camp Rock Enon hosted 750 plus participants in fall camping activities. They enjoyed over $150,000 in camp improvements, including the renovated Dining Hall, a shower house with private stalls and a replaced the main sewer line.

"Scouting a game with a Purpose."

*Lord Baden-Powell
Thank you for supporting Boy Scouts of America*

Prepared for Life

